The Fellowship Community National Gathering Lakeland, Florida 2025

Report from Pastor Timothy's week at
The Fellowship Community (TFC) National Gathering

Every year TFC hosts a National Gathering. This network of pastors and churches is our "tribe" within the Presbyterian Church (USA) – we are evangelical, missional, and relational. This year about 300 pastors, elders (Rin Page, Jane Campbell, and Jay Jackson attended from FPC), and church leaders gathered in Lakeland, Florida, representing this nationwide movement. It's always one of my favorite weeks of the year!

If I could sum up this year's conference in one word it would be...
HOPEFUL!

Timothy steps into new leadership as President of TFC.

From the keynote speakers (who offered markers for flourishing churches) to breakout seminars (who encouraged a resurgence in evangelism) to worship (a pipe organ recital, a full choir, and a Latino-infused contemporary praise band) to relationships (going all the way back to my old youth group days) to the creation of a new TFC Leadership pipeline...all of it was HOPEFUL!

At the risk of burying the lede...I also stepped in a new leadership role. I'm now the President of The Fellowship Community. I'm honored and humbled to serve this tribe of our denomination in this season. I'm also hopeful to serve.

This picture represents why I'm so hopeful to serve

This picture was taken at our Pastors' Pre-gathering. Around 80 pastors from all over the country gathered for prayer, mutual encouragement, and scripture study. We sat in circles, rather than rows. We listened to each other's hearts – our fears and concerns, our hopes and dreams. We soaked in the scriptures (like John 21 and Mark 4), we prayed for each other, and we sang together. No instruments, just acapella voices – the "Doxology," "Great Is Thy Faithfulness" and "Praise to the Lord." I wept as the choruses of the faithful moved through the Youth Room of First Presbyterian Church of Lakeland. Then, we got together for this picture. It wasn't planned this way, but look at the word on the youth room wall of behind us... "Surrender." This was us – pastors in the PC(USA) surrendered to Jesus. This is why I'm hopeful. Because the church is in good hands. Not our hands, not my hands. But surrender to Jesus. The church is in HIS hands.

In Christ, Timothy

Medical Missionaries John and Teresa Holeman

What a successful and heartwarming trip in February! John and I were able to take ten suitcases this trip each weighing 70 pounds! The most we have ever taken on our Medical Mission Trip to Roatan, Honduras. It was all made possible with the help of this wonderful, giving congregation of our First Presbyterian Church. We cannot thank everyone enough with their selfless donations of over-the-counter meds and funds to purchase prescription medications. The people of Roatan thank you as well. The smiles, hugs and a few tears make it all worth while. It gives John and me much joy to be able to help others in need.

Blessings to all! John and Teresa

Moncks Corner is blessed with many great churches that are true to the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Our society is fractured by a culture with a tendency to build walls rather than bridges.

These gatherings are great times to worship and fellowship with other brothers and sisters in Christ.

Dear Church Family,
Richard and I cannot express how much we appreciate all the support you have given us through this difficult season of losing Mrs. Kizer. Your calls, cards, prayer and the beautiful plant were so appreciated. We all face challenges in our lives, having a church family that provides so much support means the world to us and helps us to remember God's love in those difficult days.

Thank You, Diane and Richard Kizer

Dear Church Family,
Thank you for the wonderful meal, as well as your texts, calls, and prayers during and after Jim's recent hospitalization. He is doing so much better now! We appreciate all of you so much!

Jane and Jim Campbell

Dear First Presbyterian Prayer Quilters,
I want to thank each of you for your prayers and the beautiful quilt that you sent to me by my cousin Anna. I know you all have been praying for me and I appreciate it more than you know! The quilt was such a surprise and a welcomed gift. God is working hard...always and I'm so grateful to Him. Again, thank you for the quilt and prayers.

Love in Christ, Amy Ard
